The GRASSHOPPER

The Grasshopper is the family crest of Sir Thomas Gresham, the founder and visionary behind The Royal Exchange. The legend goes that in the thirteenth century, his ancestor Roger de Gresham was abandoned as a baby and left in the tall grass where he was finally discovered by a woman whose attention was drawn to the child by a grasshopper. The symbol can still be found today on the weathervane atop The Royal Exchange.

The GRESHAM PEARL

Owing to his skill, drive and connections, Sir Thomas Gresham enjoyed wonderful financial success. During the reign of Queen Elizabeth I, to whom Gresham was a trusted advisor, it is said that he reduced a pearl worth 15,000 down to a fine powder which he promptly put in his glass of wine and drank to the health of The Queen.

The VAULTS RESTAURANT

In 1877, one Edward Tyrell Smith gained the lease to these vaults to open a 'refreshment room'. It is unknown how long the establishment was open.
